

Tips for Successful Hybrid Working

Online Webinar

Pandemic restrictions have eased, and businesses are preparing to return to the office. Many employees have enjoyed the flexibility of working from home. So, it is likely that a “hybrid” model will be the new way of working.

Hybrid working is a mix between remote and office working. Ideally the model provides the best of both worlds. If successful, employees and employers can benefit from the: 1) flexibility of working from home and 2) time to collaborate with colleagues in the office.

In this webinar we present tips for successful hybrid working that will help teams optimise their time and their productivity while achieving a good work-life balance.

Topics

The following topics will be covered:

- The importance of resetting before the next phase
- How to plan ahead to get the most from your time
- Individual and team tips to optimise hybrid working
